Get all the ATVs

ATV Offroad Fury 3 is the third game in the ATV driving franchise. It aims to offer the same adrenaline-fuelled, fast, arcade off-road experience as the previous games. There are a lot of tricks you can pull and a lot of vehicles you can use. The third game is not being developed by Rainbow Studios anymore, but by the newcomers Climax Studios, the people that make Moto GP. There are no major new additions to the game, but altogether a host of small improvements. ATV Offroad Fury 3 gives the player various game play modes, like Practice, Lap Attack, Single Race, and Championship. There's a good tutorial mode to learn the basics, from how to move to how to perform stunts. After completing it, you can jump right into the game and strive to be the best there is in ATV racing.
