Alice Cooper Makes Fun Of Paris Hilton And Her Chihuahua

Paris Hilton will fight with Tinkerbell in Cooper's concerts

Rocker Alice Cooper, annoyed by Paris Hilton and her Chihuahua, decided to make fun of her on his tour. Cooper, 57, declared during an interview that, tired to see all the swanky pop singers with a chihuahua in their purse, decided to hire a Paris Hilton lookalike to fight with a little dog on stage, on his Dirty Diamonds tour, launched in America in August 2005. He says: "Is anybody not tired of seeing these divas with these little chihuahuas in their purse? I said: 'What would happen if one of the chihuahuas went for her throat and she's on the floor beating this dog? The audience is dying laughing because everybody wants to see that!'" Alice Cooper, born Vincent Damon Furnier on February 4, 1948, heavily influenced by The Beatles, formed a number of rock bands in the '60s, including the Earwigs, The Spiders, and The Nazz. In 2005, Cooper released his 24th studio album "Dirty Diamonds"; his first release on New West Records (for America.) "Dirty Diamonds" was launched on August 2, 2005 in the US and July 4, 2005 in Europe. It is a continuation of the songwriting approach the band used on "The Eyes of Alice Cooper". "Dirty Diamonds" is Cooper's highest charting album since 1994's, "The Last Temptation", coming in at #169 on The Billboard 200.
