

17 October 2005

By: Entertainment News Staff, -

Angelina Jolie to Star in the New Bond Movie?

A "perfect" Vesper Lynd, producers say

After a hot week announcing Daniel Craig as the new James Bond, the casting continues. The next on the list is beautiful Angelina Jolie, who, reckon the producers, is "perfect" for the role of Vesper Lynd, a Russian double agent who beds new 007 Daniel Craig in Casino Royale. Jessica Alba, Sienna Miller and Kelly Brook have already been linked with the new Bond girl. Sexy singer Rachel Stevens also declared that it would be a dream come true to get the part. As for Angelina, the actress has just finished filming "The Mirror", to be released in July 2006 and is currently working under the direction of Robert De Niro for "The Good Shepherd", together with Matt Damon. Hard-working in acting as well as in helping others, the actress has recently received an award for being a UN goodwill ambassador.