Actress Angelina Jolie confessed in a recent interview that she always falls in love with her male co-stars

Actress Angelina Jolie confessed in a recent interview that she always falls in love with her male co-stars and the shooting for "Mr and Mrs Smith" brought her close to Brad Pitt. Still, Jolie denies she had a romantic affair with Brad. "I have always developed deep ties with actors who have played alongside me, Jolie told World Entertainment News Network. I always fall in love." Angelina also said that the gun-training sessions for the movie brought her close to Brad Pitt. "If you're armed, you need to trust that person. We developed a good understanding", Jolie said.
