

12 October 2005

By: Mihaela Stroia, Entertainment Editor

Arnold Schwarzenegger Signs for Terminator 4 and True Lies 2

Eliza Dushku: "We're doing it. Definitely doing it. I'm revved."

California Governor and actor Arnold Schwarzenegger has decided to return into the movie business, signing to star in two big money sequels. Schwarzenegger, 58, has agreed to work once again with the Oscar-winning director James Cameron for the forth "Terminator" project and for the "True Lies" sequel, according to website Moviehole.net. Actress Eliza Dushku, who will star as the daughter of Arnold in "True Lies 2", says: "We all caught up. Me, Jamie Lee Curtis, Arnold and Jim (James Cameron), to talk about "True Lies 2", about a month ago in California. We're doing it. Definitely doing it. I'm revved." John Rosengrant, the special effects expert from Stan Winston Studios, confirms the rumor by saying: "It's too early to figure out what a new Terminator would look like, or anything like that. You see the script and what spark comes from that, (talk) with the director and see what the vision is. It does no good to dream it up unless you write a treatment and try to get out there and sell it yourself."