

21 December 2006

By: Elena Gorgan, Entertainment News Editor

BREAKING: Miss Nevada in Softcore Porn Photos!!!

Another Miss USA sex scandal

As if Donald Trump hasn't had enough of these young ladies who get 'carried away' because of their youth and inexperience and who 'make mistakes' which, by the way, should be overlooked, another sex scandal shocks the Miss USA Organization to the core. Miss Nevada 2007, Katie Rees, who was supposed to represent the state in next year's national pageant can now be seen in postures that certainly are not fit for a beauty queen. They would do just fine for a 'Girls Gone Wild' episode, though... Sources from canada.com got their hands on the pictures which, although being not so unfamiliar on the Internet, are not doing any credit to a woman who has to abide by such moral and behavioral standards as a Miss contestant. At the time the photographs were taken, Rees was at a party (she was only 17) and can be seen kissing other women, simulating oral sex with both men and women, flashing her butt cheeks outside a bar and drinking what surely looks like alcohol. Pageant officials are now investigating Rees' case, to see whether she can still keep her title and the chance to run for the state in the Miss USA pageant. Her attorney tried to find an excuse for the pictures, by saying that she was too young to realize exactly what she was doing. 'Katie Rees - Miss Nevada USA wants the public to know she was 17 and had a lapse in judgment ... the actions on that evening in subject are in no way indicative of the person she is or the person she has become ... she is a law-abiding citizen and talented adult. This was an isolated incident that occurred more than five years ago when she was a minor', the lawyer said while doing an interview with 'Extra'. CLICK HERE for the photos but, be advised, they require the maximum of 'viewer discretion'.