Battle Hunter Cheats and Gameplay Hints (PSX)

Level Jump, extra points, duplicate items and more

It's the very near future, and a gigantic war has wiped out much of mankind. The scientists who remain on the Earth's surface want to create a formula to bring humanity back from the brink of extinction, but they'll need important information that's stored in the vaults of the world's largest cities. The mission of retrieving the facts has been assigned to a highly skilled task force called the Hunters, and you're among their elite. Compete with other Hunters and avoid deadly environmental elements as you try to become the first post-war hero by delivering the secrets to the right hands. Packed with hidden levels, special relics, and awesome power-ups, BATTLE HUNTER pits you against evil robots, mutated animals, and even some of your own friends! Battle Cards will help you get a leg up on the competition, and awesome action physics make the gameplay smooth and realistic. If you're looking for an original challenge that lives up to its premise, check out BATTLE HUNTER. (description available courtesy of psxa2z.com)

CHEAT
Extra Points: press X + R2 + L2 in Hunter Mode

GAMEPLAY HINTS
Duplicate items: Have two Hunters. The first Hunter should have an open item slot and the second Hunter should have the item to be duplicated. Make sure that you save the second Hunter before going into battle. Go into battle, have the first Hunter attack the second Hunter. Then, have the second Hunter surrender the item to be duplicated. Finish the battle. Without saving the second Hunter, reload him. Now both Hunters should have the same item. It is best to duplicate something such as the Unit X because you can sell it for 15,000 cr and level up faster.

Avoid losing items after a battle: If you lose a lot of HP in a battle and then have no money remaining afterwards. Power off your PlayStation then turn it back on again. You will have everything you had before entering the previous battle.

Easy kills: Make a character to start with a +2 movement (costs 5 points out of the 11 you have). Give him a +7 attack. As you level up, increase your HP the first time you can buy a level (should cost 1000 cr). After this only level attack. You should have a high enough attack to one hit or two hit kill anyone and your movement is enough to keep up with the other opponents. Your HP might not be high, but if you use a Def Bonus card you will not get one hit killed and should still deal enough damage to kill them in two attacks. Love anime games?
