

11 December 2007

By: Cosmin Vasile, Communications News Editor

The Best Motorola Handsets Available for Holiday Season

Great round-up for the whole year

Motorola respects the true spirit of the season's holiday by offering some of its best handsets and headsets. This is truly a remarkable effort as the line-up contains only the stylish gadgets and various handsets that have been successful on the market the whole year. Thus, holiday buyers will be able to give great gifts to their loved ones at special prices. Multitasking smartphones, good-looking handsets, and a wide variety of stylish headsets are only some of the highlights Motorola's offering. Let's review some of these sensational devices that Motorola is yet to come up with. MOTO Q 9h Global SmartPhone This sleek and robust device is packed with power, functionality and offers a cool design that is sure to please, no matter where your multi-tasking jetsetter has touched down. The redesigned QWERTY keyboard enables faster typing while the seven dedicated keys make for the most-used features, like email, Web browsing and text messaging. The device is available through AT&T for $199.99 (with two-year contract). MOTOPURE H12 Universal Bluetooth Headset The MOTOPURE H12 is the first Bluetooth enabled headset with Motorola's audio-enhancing CrystalTalk technology, which features two microphones for clear, natural sounding audio. The MOTOPURE H12 is the ultimate in clarity, luxury, freedom and comfort. It is available in AT&T stores for $99.99 after a mail-in rebate. MOTO Q 9c SmartPhone With its combination of beauty and brains, the MOTO Q 9c delivers everything the business user needs to get. Windows Mobile 6 standard provides the tools to stay organized, such as reading corporate emails, editing documents with Documents To Go and managing the calendar and contacts. MOTO Q 9c boasts up to 4GB of optional removable memory (sold separately) to store documents, files and images while Microsoft ActiveSync allows users to sync email, contacts and calendars with their PC. The smartphone is available through Sprint for $149.99 with a two-year agreement and a mail-in rebate. MOTO Q 9m Music SmartPhone The Moto Q 9m music smart phone makes the multi-tasking music lover's dream reality with a new ultra-thin, light-weight design that provides a fully loaded entertainment center. With an integrated music player and lightning fast wireless music downloads, get your music on the go. Microsoft Photo Story and a 1.3 megapixel camera capture all the memorable moments. With 4 GB of optional removable memory (sold separately), storing up to 2,000 songs, movies, and photos, the Moto Q music smart phone is the complete multimedia package. It is available exclusively for Verizon Wireless for $149 with a two-year contract. MOTOROKR Z6 Phone Cutting-edge style meets the ultimate mobile music experience with the unlocked MOTOROKR Z6. The MOTOROKR Z6 boasts super fast music downloads, with USB 2.0 hi-speed technology and Windows Media Player 11 and a dedicated music key that launches the music library to get rockin'. With up to 2GB of optional removable memory (sold separately), users can store all of their favorite songs and playlists in one place. Unlocked for GSM, this sleek slider handset is available exclusively online on Motorola's website for $279.99. MOTOROKR S9 Headset The MOTOROKR S9 Bluetooth enabled headset provides music lovers with wireless freedom and ambient sound for a high-quality listening experience in a sporty wrap around design. Volume, calls and music tuning are quick and easy with a touch of the side controls. And missing a call from a compatible Bluetooth enabled phone5 isn't a worry when rocking out since an automatic pause of the music answers incoming calls and goes right back to rockin' when the call ends. It is available on Motorola's website for $129.99. MOTORIZR Z6tv Phone Leave your living room but put live TV in your pocket with the MOTORIZR Z6tv. With its digital audio player and large QVGA display, all housed in a slim, fashionable, slider handset, the MOTORIZR Z6tv keeps you connected to the best of live network and cable television programming through Verizon's V CAST Mobile TV. The MOTORIZR Z6tv is also a personalized music source with lightening fast over-the-air downloads, for the latest songs and videos and Windows Media Player to rock the tunes. The handset is available through Verizon Wireless for $179.99 with a two-year agreement and online rebate. RAZR Phone There's more to this stunning flip phone than just its sleek design. Calls are clearer than ever with Motorola's CrystalTalk technology (available through AT&T on the RAZR V9 and through TMobile on the RAZR V8). You can use the large color external display and touch-sensitive controls to do everything from watching TV (available through Sprint on the RAZR V9m model), enjoying music and viewing album art all without opening the flip. A 2.0 megapixel camera is only the start with video capture and playback, and up to 2 GB of memory (sold separately) to capture every unforgettable moment in high resolution. Prices vary from approximately $199.99 to $399.99. (RAZR available in V8, V9 and V9m models.)

RAZR V8 Luxury Edition This special edition handset seems to be the ultimate holiday gift. Bathed in 18k gold plating on the medallions, navigation key and hinge and clothed in snake-like skin, the Luxury Edition RAZR includes a full suite of features and accessories for those looking to indulge their glamorous side this holiday season. The phone is available exclusively from Moto Store by registering on Motorola's website.

Lime Green Chrome RAZR V3i Unlocked The classic RAZR has been outfitted in this season's hottest hues, lime green and chrome. With quad-band global capabilities, MPEG4 video playback, Bluetooth connectivity and a DAP music player, this phone will keep you connected to your friends and your tunes. This unlocked phone is available on Motorola's website for $239.99. As you can see there's a handset or headset for everyone's budget, it's just a matter of taste. I suggest you save some money and buy some of these as they make great gifts.