Photos with Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt on a beach in Africa

Everybody wants to know whether there's anything between Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie especially due to the large number of articles and gossips floating around. The subject is back to the front page with the apparition of some pictures with them in Africa. The pictures show them on a beach in Africa, with Angelina's son, Maddox. Brad is helping Maddox in building sand castles as Angelina watches them. It is a known fact that Brad wants a family, and as such, being close to Angelina's son shouldn't surprise anybody. Both of them have denied they are having a relationship, ever since they started shooting for "Mr. and Mrs. Smith", when Brad was still married with Jennifer, until even after the recent romantic weekend Brad and Angelina spent together. New York Daily News columnist Ben Widdicombe about the pics: "The photos don't show Brad and Angelina actually touching," Widdicombe said. "They're on vacation. Angelina's three-year-old son, Maddox, is also with them." Widdicombe also said there are new reports about how the photographer was able to track down the stars: "On Monday came rumors that Angelina Jolie herself may have tipped off the photographer in exchange for not publishing the pictures until they had left Africa." For these photos, New York Daily paid 1 million dollars. So far, Brad and Angelina's camps have said nothing about the latest pictures. And Aniston, who started divorce proceedings two weeks ago, has been leaning heavily on 'Friends' co-star Courteney Cox Arquette for emotional support. Publicity about the alleged Pitt-Angelina Jolie affair "is killing her," says a source. "It plays into her worst fears - that she is not pretty, sexy or smart enough." What were they doing in Africa? Well, Brad is now the ambassador of DATA, in charge with a humanitarian mission in Ethiopia and South Africa: The One campaign, founded by Bono, promote AIDS awareness and economic reform in Africa.
