Bruce Willis Forbids Demi Moore To Raise Their Children In Kabbalah Religion

Moore and Kutcher married in a Kabbalah ceremony

Actor Bruce Willis has forbidden his ex-wife, Demi Moore, to raise their children in Kabbalah spirit. Willis, married to Moore from November 21, 1987 to October 18, 2000, had three children during their thirteen-year union: Rumer Glenn Willis (born 1988), Scout LaRue Willis (1991) and Tallulah Belle Willis (1994). Apparently, the actor told Demi and Ashton, who got married in a Kabbalah ceremony at a private home over the weekend, to do whatever they want with their personal and religious lives, but without interfering with their children's spiritual education. A source said: "Bruce's feelings are that Demi and Ashton can do whatever they want with their personal and religious lives. But he puts down his foot when it comes to his daughters and does not want them visiting the Kabbalah Center." Actors Demi Moore, 42, and Ashton Kutcher, 27, got married on Sept. 24, 2005 in Los Angeles. Representatives for the Hollywood couple did not release any comments so far. US Weekly reports that Ashton and Demi exchanged vows in Beverly Hills, Calif., Saturday night in front of 100 guests. Demi Moore's ex-husband, Bruce Willis, is said to have attended the wedding as well.
