Championship Manager 2007 - Hot Player Hints

Just get the ball and score!

Corner setup You might have noticed that your players don't score that often from corner shots. If that's the case, then you're definitely doing something wrong and here's how you can fix it. In CM 2007, without proper instructions, players will have a hard time scoring goals this way. If you want to be the master of corner play, buy Rosicky and Kompany. When you have Rosicky, take all corners and free kicks, set corners to "edge of 6 yard box" and have Kompany as a DM with attack corners set to default. This way, your team has a solid corner setup ready to tackle those, up to now, frustrating situations.

Easy to get players Joseph Job comes from Cameroon international and is free. You can get him on wages of 500, and spend 80+ on lots of stats. Messi is easy to loan too, just pay Barcelona about 500k along with his full wages and he is yours for a season. Tom Stewart from Linfield is free and has great potential. Even though his stats are not amazing, they improve and eventually add to his effectiveness so much you'll never know he was once a newbie. Marcelinho Carioca is a quality player that comes cheap. Too bad he's quite old, but he'll score a good deal to make up for it. On the opposite side lies Craig Lindfield from Liverpool that has the advantage of youth and is an amazing striker too. Cafu is amazing and will join most championship clubs for just under £1 million. You can get away with playing Joaquin in MC at United, with Carrick being a DM and Joaquin being an AM/WR, as a balanced partnership they work well. Joaquin scores a lot of goals from there.

Goalkeepers There are a couple of incredibly good goalkeepers available, like Akinfeyev at CSKA Moscow, Soren Pirson, and Andreas Issaksson from Mankfester. Matt Murray hardly ever concedes goals and Maxim Shumaylov from Amkar great stats and only 16. Federico Bini is definitely someone who can develop into a top rate goalkeeper. I believe you can get him for about 1.5 millions. He is only 17 and his stats are half decent already. Simone Santarelli is very good. He's 17 and at Lazio at the start of the game. I got him for £2.3m with United, but you may be able to get him for less.

Finding the best players This is a good way to find players with great potential:

1. Open up Player/Staff search
2. In "Filters" tick the type of position your desired player should fill in (GK – goalkeepers for example)
3. Scroll down to GK Technical in the attribute settings and set it to 804. Go into View and click Others
5. Order them by age and you have a list of good keepers with the best young ones at the top

The All-Stars The young ones need to train with the best so here's a not so complete list of great players that have already proven themselves in the field. In no particular order:
