Beautiful soprano Charlotte Church was invited by Jordan to sing at her wedding to Peter Andre.

Beautiful soprano Charlotte Church was invited by Jordan to sing at her wedding to Peter Andre. According to Sunday Mirror, Charlotte, 19, will interpret a rendition of Ave Maria for guests at the ceremony at Highclere Castle, Berks, next month.

"Charlotte was thrilled to be asked and delighted to accept," a source told the newspaper. "She's very fond of Jordan and Peter and was honored that they considered her to take part in their big day.

She's busy rehearsing the song to get it just right. She's determined it will be one of her best ever performances to help make it a day to remember."

Meanwhile, Church is not allowed to use her accounts, because she spends too much money. Her financial adviser reported she already spent $2 million on vacations and shopping.

So, for now, Church, 19, won't be able to access her millions until she learns "the value of money".

Charlotte Church, born February 21, 1986, made a cameo appearance on the US CBS series "Touched by an Angel", which established her unique talents as a soprano at such a young age.
