Elle Macpherson is dating Colin Farrell

Only two days after Elle Macpherson announced she split up from her partner Arpad Busson, it is reported that she's seeing actor Colin Farrell.

Only two days after Elle Macpherson announced she split up from her partner Arpad Busson, it is reported that she's seeing actor Colin Farrell. The beautiful supermodel said that although they were photographed together on a beach in Bahamas, they are nothing more than good friends. Friday, Elle Macpherson and Arpad Busson, who have two sons, declared that "whilst remaining the greatest of friends, we have decided to spend some time apart to consider our future." They said no third party was involved. One friend revealed: "I can hardly believe it. They always seemed happy together and a perfect family". However, another source added: "Elle was desperate to get married, but even though they were engaged, she couldn't get him to commit to marriage".
