

17 October 2007

By: Florin Troaca, Communications News Editor

The flyPhone
Firefly Mobile

Free Mobile Phones from Firefly Mobile

The special offer is for Disney Mobile subscribers

Firefly Mobile, the first pay-as-you-go service provider to create handsets designed specially for kids and tweens, just announced an attractive offer for Disney Mobile subscribers. Anyone who switches to Firefly Mobile until October 31st the latest will be able to get the Original Firefly Phone or the multimedia flyPhone for free! Plus, users who chose the flyPhone will receive a $10 credit for downloading games, music, ring tones, videos or wallpapers from flyStore, the exclusive Firefly content portal. "Firefly's unique phones with innovative features coupled with Firefly's built-in parental controls that minimize cost and maximize parental visibility are a perfect fit for tweens and their families", said Patrick Marry, Chief Executive Officer at Firefly Mobile. "The combination of a free phone and free credit to the flyStore will show subscribers the tremendous value Firefly offers tweens and their families." The first mobile device created exclusively for tweens, the flyPhone, is wisely packed with appealing and cool features for any tween: MP3 player, camera, video player, mobile games and texting, photos, slideshows, wallpapers, ringtone customization etc. Moreover, the phone includes flyKicks, a software that lets you create your own ring tones, slideshows and wallpapers. Also being a portal to the flyStore, flyKicks enables users to download from a huge collection of goodies the latest music (you can choose from over 2.1 million MP3s), games, ringtones, videos or wallpapers. The flyPhone comes with a patent pending electro-luminescent keypad that can automatically morph, depending on the flyPhone feature that's being used, into a game controller, a video and MP3 controller or a full keypad. Furthermore, the phone's cool design will definitely attract tweens who love fashion and technology. To benefit from Firefly's special offer simply visit their website, which can be found by clicking here. Enjoy!