Model Heidi Klum secretly married her lover, well known singer Seal, on a beach in Mexico

It looks like the best week for beach weddings. Model Heidi Klum secretly married her lover, well known singer Seal, on a beach in Mexico. Unlike Renee Zellweger and her new husband Kenny Chesney, Heidi and Seal announced their engagement just before Christmas and two month later Heidi officially confirmed her pregnancy. The ceremony, held near Seal's residence on Costa Careyas, Mexico, was conducted in front of 40 guests, close friends and relatives. The wedding dress was created by Vera Wang. Seal, 42, performed a song at the ceremony that he had written for the occasion, accompanied by Hungarian violinist Edvin Marton. Heidi Klum, Victoria's secret model, was married before, with hairstylist Ric Pipino. They divorced 5 years later. Then she met Renault Formula One team boss Flavio Briatore. Their daughter, Leni, was born last May. Seal, for whom it was a first marriage, has scored international hits with songs including "Crazy", "Love's Divine" and "Kiss from a Rose". In 1996 he received Grammy award for best male pop vocal performance and his song "Kiss from a Rose" was awarded "Best Record" and "Song of the Year".
