Hooray! Jennifer Aniston Has a New Man

Things may be heating up between Jennifer and Aaron Eckhart

Everybody, beware: we're heading for some major Jennifer Aniston / Angelina Jolie drama, and already we have plenty of "pre-battle" stories for you to enjoy until we get to see the big day. What, don't tell me you're not aware of the big news yet! Well, here it is in a nutshell – at next weekend's pre-Oscar charity party, Aniston and the Jolie-Pitts will act as co-hosts. Oh, the horror! Personally, I believe there will be no cat fight, no insults and no snubbing whatsoever, but I realize there is a small (and very evil, I admit) part of me that really wants Jennifer to slap Angelina over the face and call her a slut. You know, just to provide some closure to the whole "Brad leaves Jen for Angie" drama. In the meantime, however, it looks like camp Aniston is getting some serious reinforcements.

Well, people, brace yourselves for the Jennifer Aniston rumored relationship number 547739002993837. This time, her partner of choice is Aaron Eckhart, who co-stars with Jen on the set of romantic drama "Traveling", currently shooting in Vancouver, Canada. "They're getting along so great that everyone on the set is gossiping about something more going on between them. They're just so in sync all the time", a source from the set reports via Daily Mail. "And Jen's entire reason for doing this movie was Aaron. She's wanted to work with him for years and was completely flattered that she was his first choice to be the leading lady in this movie. It's going to be a real change of pace for Jen, who has focused exclusively on making romantic comedies. This is more of a quirky romantic drama with lots of intense scenes opposite Aaron. They're in almost every scene together".

Well, as I see it there are two possibilities, obviously: either Jennifer and Eckhart really are dating, in which case all I can say is "way to go, girl" or they're not dating ( I know, I'm starting to state the obvious), in which case maybe they should just try harder. You know, get to know each other. They're the same age, so things could really work out. The romance rumors have also been sparked by the fact that Eckhart not only personally requested that Jen plays his leading lady, but he also reportedly split up with his longterm girlfriend right before he started filming the movie with Aniston. "I think the fact that both of them have been single for a couple of months is contributing to the chemistry they have on this film, even when they aren't shooting. They genuinely enjoy each other's company. But if they're actually hooking up, they're doing it as quietly as possible", the same source added. What else can I say? Fingers crossed and stay tuned for more news.
