Is Angelina Jolie Working Voodoo on Brad Pitt?

Brad Pitt charmed?

Was the reason Brad Pitt left Jennifer Aniston for Angelina Jolie discovered? Was it bat powder? Angelina Jolie gave her buddy a vial of gray powder to ward off accidents. A close friend of the actor discovered the thing in the glove department of Brad's car, according to the New York Daily Times. Pitt told his friend that the vial contained the remnants of a bat. Angelina Jolie has had such eccentricities in the past, so the news is no surprise for anyone. It just gives plenty of space for speculations. Doctor Snake, the author of cult best-seller "Voodoo Spellbook", thinks that Jolie is working voodoo on Brad. "That vial sounds suspiciously like a voodoo 'mojo hand', or magical charm", he says. Snake is skeptical that the charm is for warding off accidents, as voodoo spells using ingredients from bats are normally used in workings of black magic. "One dark voodoo spell uses Bat's Heart Incense, which is burnt to break up a love affair or marriage", the Doctor says. Isn't that wicked? Doctor Snake has also made a prediction: the couple will be having twins.
