J-LO Fighting The Pressure of Fame

Latino Diva Jennifer Lopez has been talking about the sacrifices she had to maKe in her career

Now that she's a superstar, J-Lo doesn't have time for anything, but to moan about the sacrifices she has made for fame. Jennifer Lopez, now a famous singer, actress and fashion designer, has been known as a workaholic, who tried to make the best in her career. The same "Jenny from the block" admits she finds it difficult to deal with the pressures of fame, always hunted by the paparazzi. The "Monster-In-Law" star, who reportedly earned $15 million (GBP8.3 million) for her part in the movie, blames fame for the failure in her marriages to Cuban waiter Ojani Noa and American choreographer Cris Judd. This is considered to be the cause for the collapse of her split with Ben Affleck, who recently married Jennifer Garner. "You sacrifice relationships, you sacrifice seeing your family, you sacrifice your weekends and pleasures, everyone else takes for granted", Mrs. Mark Anthony said.
