Jackie Stallone's Insists To Be Played By Angelina Jolie

Sylvester Stallone's mom is deperate to have the movie beauty Angelina Jolie to play her in a film the Rambo star is making about her life.

Jackie Stallone is thrilled that her son, Sylvester, chose to make a movie a bout her colorful life.

The former celebrity astrologer, who has worked as a circus rider, a trapeze artist, a dermatologist, and also tried to be a trainer of two psychic dogs, has appeared on British reality TV show Celebrity Big Brother earlier this year, as well.

Jackie agrees to be portrayed in a film, but only by Angelina Jolie.

Sly tried to convince his 82-year-old mother, who holds the distinction of being the first American voted off the British version of "Big Brother", that her life would make a great movie, and is waiting for Angelina's answer.
