Beautiful actress Jessica Alba, starring this year sci-fi adventure movie "Fantastic Four", declared she doesn't want to shoot nude scenes, arguing she prefers to be noticed for her acting rather than her body.

She says, "I don't do nudity, I never do nudity. I just don't feel comfortable being naked around other people. Julia Roberts doesn't do nudity. A lot of people don't.

Jessica declared she's really talented and intelligent, claiming she can be sexy without resorting to nude scenes. "I'm more into being intelligent, sophisticated and heartfelt, and if it comes across as sexual that's fine, but it's never my goal."

However, Jessica confessed she finds male nudity funny and she doesn't get aroused when she sees them strip. Alba remembered a bizarre night-out with her mother, who took her to a strip club and she couldn't stop laughing at the performances.

"My mother and aunt took me to a male strip club when I was 18. Male strip clubs are just funny. It was hilarious. Men look really funny when they're trying to strip", Jessica said.
