

6 July 2005

By:

Jessica Alba Said Men Are "Bigger Divas Then Woman"

Beautiful Jessica Alba, starring "Sin City" and "Fantastic Four" declared in a recent interview that her male co-stars from "Fantastic Four" Are "Bigger Divas Then Woman"

Beautiful Jessica Alba, starring "Sin City" and "Fantastic Four" declared in a recent interview to Britain's Sunday Times Culture magazine that her male co-stars from "Fantastic Four" made a bigger fuss than women while doing action scenes.

"Men are much bigger divas than women. When I used to do the action scenes in Dark Angel I would have to play it rough. If you hit an actress accidentally, she would usually take it on the chin and say, 'Don't do that again'.

But with the guys, they would put ice on it, take a 20-minute break and ask for x-rays. It was unbelievable. I would tell them, 'Come on, man, get over it'".

Jessica also said that her costume for The Invisible Woman was much too revealing. "The outfit was very tight. There was not a lot left to anyone's imagination.

"All the boys got to wear muscle suits underneath their outfits but I didn't have anything. My costume was so revealing. I just had to embrace it and walk proud".

RELATED LINKS

Jessica Alba in court