Kate Beckinsale's Webcam Striptease Sessions

The 32-year old British actress wants to add some spice in her relationship

Kate Beckinsale has revealed that she likes to strip for her husband, director Len Wiseman, on a webcam when they are working apart, as they miss each other very much..."It was Len's idea and he set them up. He tells me what to wear each evening. It really helps our relationship", the 32-year-old British actress told Playboy magazine."There's no way we are keeping it clean. (...) That's the whole point. It's just like when you get a photocopier and you just have to do one of your bum. It's just one of those rules of life", she added. The brunette beauty has slammed rumors implying that she dressed up as Wonder Woman for her husband of 19 months. "I know there were rumors about that but I don't. My husband may be a geek but he's not that bad", she stated. Beckinsale has also declared herself satisfied with the new curves she got while working for 'Click'. "I had much bigger boobs and bottom and Len enjoyed my voluptuous body. It was nice he didn't run away screaming and I know he'll be around when I decide to let myself go", Kate confessed. The British actress will present the Golden Globe Awards with Mark Wahlberg and Steve Carell. The ceremony will take place at the Beverley Hilton hotel on January 16. Meanwhile, the nominations for the awards will be read out by Beckinsale and her co-hosts next week.
