Kate Hudson Breast Feeding in Public

Kate Hudson - a mother on the set

While filming for "The Skeleton Key", Kate Hudson offered people from the set a picturesque view of herself. When not busy working, she was breastfeeding her firstborn, Ryder Russell Robinson, and chatting with the director. The actress confessed she found the experience quite funny. She declared for Britain's OK! Magazine: "It was funny when I was breastfeeding because every three hours I'd go to the trailer to breastfeed or pump. It became a joke in the end; it was hard but it got to the point where I didn't want to go back to the trailer so I'd just bring the baby out and I'd sit and I'd talk to the director and just breastfeed him while chatting." She gave birth to son Ryder on January 7th, 2004, and lost 60 pounds in the next three months, for the role in "The Skeleton Key". Kate was afterwards attacked with 'skeleton pictures', but her reply was firm. She sued five British tabloids, in an attempt to keep her image clean of eating disorder rumors.
