

19 September 2005

By: Entertainment News Staff, -

Kate Moss's Sex Allegations

After the drug use scandal, Super model Kate Moss has now to confront another one, about her being involved in lesbian orgies with her friends Sadie Frost and Davina Taylor.

After the drug use scandal, supermodel Kate Moss has now to confront another one, about her being involved in lesbian orgies with her friends Sadie Frost and Davina Taylor. After she was photographed by Daily Mirror journalists snorting a line of the class A drug on the back of a CD cover in the studio where Babyshambles were recording their album, now, British newspaper The News of the World published yesterday an article which claims Moss had a threesome with Sadie and Davina Taylor. Rebecca White, a fashion Pa who claims to have known Moss since 1998, tells British newspaper The News of the World, "She is naturally a very sexually open person. But, when she's doing cocaine, she becomes even more so and will fall into bed with whoever she chooses. Women as well as men." A source tells the tabloid, "Kate was high and the other two (Frost and Taylor) were drunk at a bash. They went up to a suite and got in bed together. They were watching television together when Kate started chatting about sex." "She had already been to bed with Sadie - so she asked Davinia if she had ever done it before. They started snogging and soon they were having a threesome with Sadie." Another source claims the model also had a threesome with Sadie and her ex husband Jude Law, after he became jealous of being left out. "Sadie doesn't really fancy other women, but it has become normal between her and Kate. Jude started to hate it when his wife was alone with Kate," another source said. "So they had threesomes-Jude, Kate and Sadie-because he didn't like it when he wasn't involved. At one of Kate's parties Sadie was having sex openly with Kate and they were all over each other's breasts," he added.