Keira Knightley Wants to Win Back Jamie Dornan with Flowers

The Pirates of the Caribbean star is said to have become desperate to get back with her ex-lover

Keira Knightley is said to have behaved lately in a desperate manner just to win back her ex-boyfriend Jamie Dornan. The Domino star has been delivering flowers and food to the former model's home. According to a source quoted by Britain's Daily Express newspaper, "she brings flowers and food round to his bachelor flat and tries to give it a woman's touch. At the moment, he's spending all his time in the studio working on his album, and he simply doesn't have time for Keira". The British beauty has split up with Dornan earlier this year. Since then, she was rumored to have romanced the Bodyrockers star Kaz James. Earlier this month, the 20-year-old actress was spotted crying her heart out in a club's restroom for not being able to locate Dornan, whom she allegedly had some very important things to say to. Meanwhile, Knightley revealed in a recent interview that her mother allowed her to smoke in her presence. "My mother and I would always talk about sex. She'd come up to my room and have me roll cigarettes for her and then tell me I had to have one with her. Not the typical mother-daughter thing. But we're extremely close. My mother's a bit mental - in a good way. She's a chilled-out hippie", Keira confessed.
