The Akrid is back and ready to take the battle online

Lost Planet: Extreme Condition Colonies Edition provides the ultimate action experience for both online and offline players. Don't be worried that you've missed Lost Planet because all the gameplay that made the original such a hit is back in this new edition with more content than ever and, for the first time, it will provide cross platform multi-play. Fans won't be disappointed by the bonus: three new single player campaign modes, ten new weapons, five new playable characters, 20 multiplayer maps and seven new multiplayer modes, including the possibility to play with the Akrid. If you're still not convinced, you should really check the trailer below. It will blow your mind!
