Mariah Carey Baths With Her Dog

Carey: "He really is a very cool dog."

Singer Mariah Carey has recently revealed that she's bathing with her dog. Carey, 35, declared that her little dog always jump into her tub whenever he wants to take a bath. She admitted: "If I'm running a bath all of a sudden I'll hear a splash and Jack will have jumped into the tub. It's something that has been happening for ages - it's like, 'It's like Jack is in the tub again, swimming around.'" Mariah claims the Jack Russell also loves jumping into her hot tub. She is quoted by Scotland's Daily Record newspaper as saying: "His favorite toy is a jet - like the ones you find in pools and hot-tubs. He continually dives under the water and tries to bite the water coming out of the jets." Mariah Carey, born on March 27, 1970 in New York, is an American popular music singer and composer, who rose to prominence in the 1990s, when she became America's most successful recording artist for that decade, according to Billboard magazine. The World Music Awards recognized her as the world's biggest-selling artist of the 1990s, and in 2000, the show declared her the best-selling female pop artist of all time.
