Meg Ryan Is The New Face For Baume & Mercier

The famous Hollywood actress joins Kiefer Sutherland in a campaign

Meg Ryan has decided to "add" her face to a famous watch company. The actress has recently signed a deal with the Swiss company Baume et Mercier. The Kate & Leopold star appears in printed adds for the timepiece firm. Ryan joins the likes of Charlize Theron and Johnny Depp among those endorsing top class timepieces, according to Contactmusic. Meg Ryan, Kiefer Sutherland & Baume et Mercier are proud to be supporting the following non-profit organizations: Doctors Without Borders, Glaza : Greater Los Angeles Zoo Association, Hollywood Entertainment Museum, Prostate Cancer Foundation, and Youth I.N.C. All charity and celebrity affiliation are arranged through Kate Moulene at Capian Enterprises, Los Angeles, California, United States. Baume & Mercier watches have a rich and storied tradition in Swiss watchmaking and are designed and crafted according to the strictest criteria in the field. The company is at the forefront of luxury watch design. It all began in 1830 in the Swiss Jura, the heart of Swiss Watchmaking History. The contrast of the rigorous and precise Baume with the artistic and free thinking Mercier fused form and function for all time with the distinct Baume & Mercier timepiece. Among the famous Baume Mercier watches are: Baume Mercier Capeland, Baume Mercier Catwalk, Baume Mercier Classima, Baume Mercier Hampton City, Baume Mercier Hampton Classic, Baume Mercier Hampton Milleis.
