More Vanessa Hudgens Photos - Check Them Out

Looks like she loves taking photos of herself (almost) naked...

It looks like the scandal around High School Musical star Vanessa Hudgens is in full throttle, with more pictures hitting the Internet and persistent rumors that the notoriously conservative and family-oriented Disney Channel will drop Hudgens from the third installment of the hugely popular television show. Hudgens issued a statement in which she officially apologized to her fans - which means that she was forced to do it, probably, after it was eventually confirmed that the photograph depicting a nude young woman posing in a very relaxed way for the amateur shot was indeed the 18-year-old star. "I want to apologize to my fans, whose support and trust means the world to me," the starlet wrote in her statement released yesterday. "I am embarrassed over this situation and regret having ever taken these photos. I am thankful for the support of my family and friends". Come on, girl, it's not a big deal - and it's not like she took the photo and deliberately posted it online (at least I hope she's not that stupid), although it's obvious that the fate of all photos depicting naked stars (having sex or not, it's optional) and taken for "personal reasons" end up in full view of the whole world. God bless Internet! The fact is, all conspiracy theories put aside, it was not the world's smartest move. "Vanessa has apologized for what was obviously a lapse in judgment," Disney Channel spokeswoman Patti McTeague stated. "We hope she's learned a valuable lesson". Yes, I'm sure what she has learned is the same lesson Paris learned a while ago - never leave your naked goodies out of your sight or you'll get burned. It also looks like before she took off all her clothes, darling Vanessa posed for some sexy underwear-only shots, which were also leaked to the net and which you can check out here. This time, there's no doubt about whether these pictures depict Hudgens or not - just take a look and you'll see what I mean. The funny part is that an insider has reported that besides the naked and the sexy underwear pictures, there are some more hidden goodies depicting Vanessa in a bath tub blowing kisses to (presumably) Efron. Question is, when (if ever) will we get to speculate about those photos too?
