New Grunge-Baby Due to Dave Grohl

Dave completes the list of stars to become parenthood-stars

If music were to become a family business, than Dave Grohl would be the happy owner of a successor! Former Nirvana member and actual Foo Fighters guitarist and vocal now has a daughter - Violet Maye. Dave and his wife Jordyn welcomed Saturday in Los Angeles the new comer. The rock star is as funny as always when he gives the good news to the world: "Dave & Jordyn Grohl are happy to announce the birth of their daughter, Violet Maye Grohl. Father, mother and child are happy, healthy, and up to their ears in green shirts".As for the physical features of the baby, we could sum it all up in Grohl's words - "she is just perfect!" Because of the expected baby, Foo Fighters had to finish earlier their tour. Taylor Hawkins, another member of the band, was the first to release the news in press, even though he added that he probably wasn't supposed to do this. However, no one got upset!The 37-year-old rock star, former guitarist for legendary Nirvana, is as happy as one can be. Nothing seems to be able to ruin his good mood. He received a Grammy nomination, but left the ceremony with no prize. This was not a turn off for his humor either. He has a baby now, so no more need for awards! Dave might dedicate his whole time to train his daughter in the grunge-riot attitude just to make sure he could take her in the band as soon as she has the force to keep a guitar in her hands. And there it goes the family business! Even back in February Dave Grohl claimed he had started to play well chosen hits so that his baby comes out in good musical shape.Dave and his colleagues from Foo Fighters shall start a U.K. summer tour, kicking off on June 10th in the Isle of Wight.
