Nintendo Summer Lineup Reveals Metroid Prime 3 Launch Date

Almost half of the 124 newly announced titles have been dated

When Nintendo announced its launching some 124 titles for its most beloved consoles (the Wii and DS), no one could believe their ears. Some were skeptical about it (myself included) and said that some of them will surely be Virtual Console games. Guess not. Nintendo's rolling out la crème de la crème with this newly announced lineup. Metroid Prime 3: Corruption is among the titles. Although this isn't by far the complete lineup for Nintendo's year, here's what the company has announced so far (for the summer holiday), as NextGeneration reports: Wii July 30: Mario Strikers Charged - Nintendo Aug. 20: Metroid Prime 3 Corruption - Nintendo September: Battalion Wars 2 - Nintendo Aug. 14: High School Musical: Sing It! - Disney Interactive Studios Aug. 14: Madden NFL '08 - EA August: Tiger Woods PGA Tour '08 - EA August: Space Station Tycoon - Namco Bandai August: Brunswick Pro Bowling - Crave August: Dave Mirra BMX Challenge - Crave August: Pinball Hall of Fame: The Williams Collection - Crave September: Brothers in Arms - Ubisoft September: Looney Tunes: Acme Arsenal - Warner Bros.
