Pamela Anderson Singing With Bryan Adams

Apparently, Pammie is following Tommie's footsteps by becoming a rock star.

The famous Playboy diva, but also actress, novelist, fashion designer and animal rights activist is said to have already stepped into the music business, not only as a video girl, but as a real singer. Pamela Anderson has recently recorded a track with fellow Canadian Bryan Adams and she seems quite impressed with the results. Bryan Adams is a friend of mine and Canadian. He talked me into recording a song with him. We went to the Chateau Marmont (in Hollywood) and hung out for a while, says Pam. He said he wanted me to do a harmony on one of his songs called When You're Gone. I actually sang with him and it didn't sound bad. I'm surprised... I really loved it and had a really good time. It comes out in October on his Anthology album, the actress added.
