Paris Hilton: Sex In The Loo

With new boy-toy Stavros Niarchos

Paris Hilton's flame with Stavros Niarchos goes on, as the two of them have been spotted together, "making out all night", at a number of Hollywood hot-spots over the last few weeks. According to Femalefirst, the couple crossed the line at a party, where the "heat" drove them to the loo. Not to powder their noses. And when one thinks that it has been claimed that the toilet in question was a portable one... Her new boy-friend, Stavros Niarchos, who has previously dated Mary-Kate Olsen, is a 20-year-old Greek, even richer than Latsis, the ex, with whom Paris split up recently. Paris' friends were claiming that the actress Lindsay Lohan was also trying to get Stavros, but, when rumors spread, Lohan vehemently denied, declaring for Contactmusic through her representative: "That's 100 per cent not true. Lindsay is very good friends with Mary-Kate, and she is appalled that Paris is dating Stavros."
