Paris Hilton Tops Celebrity Ego Poll

The famous socialite beat out Kanye West, Usher and Beyonce in the Teen People poll

Paris Hilton has been recently voted the celebrity with the biggest ego. Teen People magazine has released the results of a new poll, which takes into account all the comments the stars made about themselves and their work. Paris Hilton topped the poll naming and shaming the biggest celebrity egos, according to Contactmusic. The famous socialite became a winner for stating, "(By) channeling my inner heiress, I created a new opportunity for young heiresses." The publication commented: "Not exactly ANGELINA JOLIE, is she?" "The Simple Life" star beat out celebrities like Kanye West, Usher, Beyonce and Christina Aguilera, who made it in the top 5 of the famous poll. Paris Hilton is eager to go back on the set for her reality show. The fourth season of "The Simple Life" is now said to be for sale. "All the networks are fighting over it," Paris declared. Nicole Richie, to whom Paris has recently sent an apology letter, might be replaced. If so, rumors say Kimberly Stewart, Rod Stewart's 26-years-old daughter and a very good friend of Paris, is the perfect candidate. When asked about a possible project with Paris, Kimberly said: "You never know." Either with Nicole or Kimberly, November 1 is the date announced by Paris to start shooting.
