Paris Hilton might join German Big Brother

Notorious Paris Hilton received a proposal from the German Big Brother production company Endemol to participate in the show.

Notorious Paris Hilton received a proposal from the German Big Brother production company Endemol to participate in the show. Rumors said she has been offered more than $1.8 million. If she will agree to be in the reality-show, "she will join a bizarre band of ex-strippers, beauty queens, a married couple and a virgin, who are living under 24 hour scrutiny on the set". Endemol manager Rainer Laux said: "Yes, it is true, we have approached her." Just last week, the inheritor of Hilton empire accepted the marriage proposal from her boyfriend Paris Latsis, 27, a heir as well of Greek shipping, after an eight-month relationship.
