Party Girl Liz Hurley Launches her own Bikini Line

Elizabeth Hurley will soon launch a beach range in Sydney

Elizabeth Hurley will soon launch her own beach range in Sydney on August 30. The line includes bikinis, sarongs, hats, and glamorous caftans, which will be sold through David Jones. The famous party girl, well-known for her exotic escapades, sunning herself at exclusive resorts and relaxing beside exquisite pools, will make a flying visit to Melbourne on September 1 and is expected to do an in-store appearance, as well. Liz Hurley, 40, has recently said she was aware most women did not want to look half-naked in public, even on holidays, but she aims to conquer the swimwear market. "I really concentrated on ways to look fabulous, but covered," Hurley told Vogue Australia. "I've taken lots of care to ensure the swimwear fits really well and the cover-ups cover up without being frumpy" "I wore the black 'Kate' top to my boyfriend's [businessman Arun Nayer] 40th birthday in Rajasthan and it looked fab", Hurley added. The famous actress, who is currently dating Indian businessman Arun Nair, shows some concern for the financial future of her son, Damian, the love child at the centre of a paternity fight with his father, US billionaire film producer Steve Bing. So, after launching her bikini line, Liz Hurley is moving into TV presenting.
