

28 August 2005

By: Andrei Boghiu, Video and PC Games Editor

SEGA Confirms This Winter's Releases

SEGA announced platforms and release dates for all 11 games planned for this winter

SEGA's catalogue is filled with a multitude of familiar classics as well as brand new series. They start by planning to release three sports related titles for fans of the genre in the same time with the September launch of the PSP handheld console. After that, they will continue to expand on various platforms. Overall, SEGA are committed to producing games across all platforms, and this array of top-quality titles makes for an exceptional Christmas line-up:- Super Monkey Ball Deluxe (PlayStation 2, Xbox) - 26 Aug 2005- Virtua Tennis: World Tour (PSP) - 1 Sept 2005- World Snooker Challenge 2005 (PSP) - 1 Sept 2005- Rome: Total War - Barbarian Invasion (PC) - 30 Sept 2005- Sonic Gems Collection (PlayStation 2, Nintendo GameCube) -30 Sept 2005- Spartan: Total Warrior (PlayStation 2, Xbox, Nintendo GameCube) - 7 Oct 2005- SEGA Classics Collection (PlayStation 2) - 28 Oct 2005- Football Manager 2006 (PC, Mac) - 4 Nov 2005- Condemned (Xbox 360) - Xbox 360 Launch title- Sonic Rush (Nintendo DS) - 25 Nov2005- Shadow The Hedgehog (PlayStation 2, Xbox, Nintendo GameCube)- 25 Nov 2005