Nickelodeon's success turns into a fun game

SpongeBob SquarePants is one of the most watched shows on Nickelodeon, and is an Emmy-nominated American animated television series and media franchise. It is one of Nickelodeon's "Nicktoons." Although its original network is Nickelodeon, SpongeBob is now broadcasted across the world. It was created by marine biologist and animator Stephen Hillenburg and is produced through his production company. The series is set in the Pacific Ocean, in the city of Bikini Bottom and the surrounding lagoon floor. The SpongeBob SquarePants Movie Game is a SpongeBob SquarePants video game, based on the film. The graphics are similar to those from Battle for Bikini Bottom. There are 18 levels in the game that loosely follow the storyline of the movie.
