World unlockables and other codes

Super Monkey Ball Touch And Roll is an extremely funny game developed by Amusement Videos and published by Sega exclusively for the Nintendo DS handheld console. The game was initially released in Japan on the 1st of December 2005, then in Europe on the 17th of February 2006, and North America on the 21st of February 2006. Super Monkey Ball Touch And Roll is the third Super Monkey Ball game featured on a handheld console (there have been GBA, N-Gage and PSP versions, too) and it fully uses the touchscreen as a control method (even though the classic D-pad control is supported). There are no less than 12 worlds presented in the game and 6 different mini-games featured. And, even though the music from the game sounds very much like the one you can hear while playing Super Monkey Ball: Banana Blitz, Super Monkey Ball Touch And Roll was still a good, fun game to play.

UNLOCKABLES

Credits mini-game Successfully complete the game to unlock the Credits mini-game at the options menu.

World 11 Successfully complete Worlds 1 through 10. Go to Hollow Diamond. Turn 180 degrees and go slowly up the ramp. Land on the narrow platform below, then turn around again and hit the red gate (Meteorite Mayhem). Go to Converse. Move towards the right edge. Wait for the red platform to pass its vertical angle. Gain some speed and dash at the red gate (Big Bang Boom). World 11 will now be unlocked.

2006 banana meter Successfully complete World 11.

World 12 Unlock the 2006 banana meter, then collect 2006 bananas from any World in the main game.

Interactive items On the "Start Game" screen where AiAi is dancing, there are flowers under him. Tap them, and they will dance. If you tap birds, they will fly to the top of the screen. Tap a balloon two or three times and it pops. Here is a game trailer:
