Play as any of the secret characters below

Super Puzzle Fighter II Turbo, also known as Puzzle Fighter, is a one or two player puzzle game first released in Japan as Super Puzzle Fighter II X in the spring of 1996 by Capcom on the CPS-2 arcade system. Shortly after its Japanese release, the game was released in other parts of the world where it received modest popularity in gaming communities. Puzzle Fighter has steadily maintained its popularity among both new and longtime fans due to its easy to learn, lighthearted, and entertaining gameplay. Although it has "II" in its title, it is not a sequel of any game. The title essentially spoofs the Street Fighter II series (in particular Super Street Fighter II Turbo), while the music and interface elements spoof that of Street Fighter Alpha and Street Fighter Alpha 2. On April 13, 2007, Capcom announced Super Puzzle Fighter II Turbo HD Remix, for Windows PC, Xbox Live Arcade and PlayStation Network. (Wikipedia)
