The Worst Tara Reid Bikini Pictures. EVER

The blonde bombshell is shrinking right before our eyes

I have to tell you, I'm almost ashamed at posting so many Tara Reid bikini pictures lately - but this sexy lady (kidding) seems to be doing nothing else but spend time almost naked, strutting her body round so that there are as many photos of herself out there. Only trouble is, they keep getting worse. First, there were those photos in which she was rubbing lotion onto her upper body (read that her boobs) and trying to be very sexy - only trouble was, she had rubbed the lotion on the outside of the bikini top, too, making herself look greasy rather than sexy. Then there were those photos of her (in a bikini again, as I was saying) that came with the news that she had collapsed during a party due to, ahem, exhaustion. And now, Tara strikes again. But prepare to be shocked - 'cause these photos ain't pretty. This reminds me of the time all the eyes (and guns) of the press were pointing in Nicole Richie's direction - and that wasn't pretty either. Everybody was talking about how thin and skeletal Nicole looked, about how she was bound to be suffering from an eating disorder and about how she was setting a bad example for young girls out there. And while in Tara's case I doubt we have to fear the "setting a bad example" part, it is true that the blonde actress is looking increasingly (and alarmingly) thin - and the news of her collapse is not helping! Just take a look at these shots of Tara preparing - you're not going to believe this one - for a photo shoot. Notice the necklace matching the bikini print - too classy to have been Tara's idea, I'd say. But I must quote one of my colleagues on this one, because her reaction to these photos sums up just about everything I had to say about them - and I'm sure you'd agree: someone is actually paying Tara for this? Really, does anyone in their right mind actually believe Tara Reid's body, looking more like a sack of bones than ever, can actually sell something? I think there has to be a mistake here somewhere. Well, we'll soon see - and in the meantime, keep your fingers crossed for less of Tara - I really want to be able to enjoy all that food over the holidays.
