Tommy Lee Wants Pamela Anderson Back

Motley Crue rocker Tommy Lee recently confessed during an interview for People magazine that he's madly in love with Pamela Anderson

Motley Crue rocker Tommy Lee recently confessed during an interview for People magazine that he's madly in love with Pamela Anderson, but this time he doesn't want to do the same mistakes he did in the past. "We're crazy in love," Lee tells People magazine in its Aug. 15 issue. "We're going to take things slowly and see where they go." Even though Pamela is denying any romantic relationship with her ex-husband, Tommy sounds like he's ready to give it another try. He also confessed he was faithful to Pamela during their turbulent marriage and he refused sex opportunities every time. He said: "I wasn't unfaithful to Pamela, but everybody has a line and mine was 'watching is OK'."
