Are you an Ubuntu user? Or have you just decided to become one? It doesn't matter how vast is your experience with the Ubuntu operating system, as long as you have a great (glamorous, unimaginable, exceptional, extraordinary, fantastic, unthinkable, unbelievable) idea and you want to share it with the world, and maybe (who knows) the Ubuntu developers will put it in the next release. For such marvelous ideas, the people behind the Ubuntu project are proud to announce Ubuntu Brainstorm! Ubuntu Brainstorm is a place where anyone who cares about the future of the Ubuntu OS, and has a wonderful idea about how the system should look or perform in future versions, can post them for the Ubuntu developers to make these ideas reality (or not)! Do you have a great idea? Take a look at the existing posts (over 1,000 ideas by now) or post yours on the brand-new Ubuntu Brainstorm website. Now!
