Victoria Beckham Addicted To Cigarettes

Posh Spice Victoria Beckham is reportedly addicted to cigarettes.

Posh Spice Victoria Beckham is reportedly addicted to cigarettes and she's a regular shopper at London's exclusive tobacconist, Davidoff. Everybody believe Victoria was just fooling around with cigarettes, after she was pictured smoking at a party on a yacht, to celebrate a deal with fashion designer, Roberto Cavalli,, but it appears the singer made a habit out of it. A source said: "The pictures threw everybody. They just assumed the cigar was purely for the cameras - but it seems she actually loves them." The ex-nanny, Abigail Gibson confessed Victoria started to smoke because she wanted to lose weight after she gave birth to their third son Cruz in February and that the Beckhams are planning to add a cigar cabinet to their Madrid home.
