Victoria Beckham Confident In Spice Girls' Reunion

Posh Spice Victoria Beckham confessed she really believes in Spice Girls reunion

Posh Spice Victoria Beckham confessed she really believes in the Spice Girls reunion and urged their fans to have patience and to be there for them, because this could happen in the near future. Victoria also declared that, for the moment, she and her colleagues Emma Bunton, Melanie Chisholm, Melanie Brown and Geri Halliwell, are enjoying their solo careers. She says: "We're all still doing our own thing. But that's the great thing about the position we're in now - when we decide we want to do more stuff, we can. "There's no pressure and, at the end of the day, our fans have been so supportive - and so loyal - that hopefully, when we do come back they'll still be there."
