Victoria Beckham: "I haven't read a book in my life."

Posh Spice Victoria Beckham made a declaration rather peculiar.

Posh Spice Victoria Beckham made a declaration rather peculiar. The beautiful wife of Real Madrid star David Beckham confessed during an interview for Daily Mail that she hasn't read a book in her life!!! Very interesting confession. According to the Daily Mail she said: "I haven't read a book in my life. I haven't got enough time. I prefer to listen to music, although I do love fashion magazines." In the interview with Chic magazine, Victoria also declared she would like to have a girl, so she could teach her how to dress and make-up. No surprise here. That's all she knows anyway. She said: "I can imagine myself painting her nails, helping her with her make-up, choosing clothes with her."
