

11880 Community Road, Suite 350
Poway, CA 92064
www.DLPLampSource.com

July 27, 2009

Dear Customer:

We are writing to inform you about a recent incident that might involve personal information about you. We recently discovered the order administration portion of the DLP Lamp Source website was compromised which affected personal information. We deeply regret that this incident occurred and take very seriously our obligation to protect the privacy of personal information.

We are currently cooperating with law enforcement agencies to investigate the incident. Through our investigation, we have determined that the personal information involved in this incident included the names and credit card numbers of DLP Lamp Source customers. We wanted to give you notice so that you can take action to protect yourself. We also are thoroughly investigating the incident and examining the measures we can take to help prevent incidents of this kind from happening again. The first step that was taken was to determine how a portion of the website was compromised and immediately resolve the issue. The website server was locked down and data source tables cleaned. The source of the security compromise was isolated and blocked immediately.

Steps We Recommend You Take

You can take some simple steps to protect yourself against identity theft or other fraudulent misuse of information about you. Remain vigilant and promptly report incidents of suspected identity theft or fraud to local law enforcement agency, your financial institution and to one of the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies listed below to have it removed from your credit file. In addition, watch for any unusual activity on your credit card accounts or suspicious items on your bills. You may wish to contact your credit card issuers and financial institutions and inform them of the incident. You may also wish to do the following:

- You may periodically obtain credit reports from each of the three nationwide credit reporting agency and have information relating to fraudulent transactions deleted. Under federal law, you are entitled to one free copy of your credit report every twelve months from each of the major credit reporting agencies. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report by going on the Internet to www.AnnualCreditReport.com or by calling 1-877-FACTACT (1-877-322-8228). If you would rather write, a request form is available on www.AnnualCreditReport.com. You may want to obtain copies of your credit reports to ensure the accuracy of the report information.
- • To further protect yourself, you may contact the fraud departments of the three major credit reporting agencies. They will discuss your options with you. You have the right to ask that the three credit reporting agencies place a "fraud alert" in your file. A fraud alert can make it more difficult for someone to get credit in your name because it tells creditors to follow certain procedures to protect you. It also may delay your ability to obtain credit. You may place a fraud alert in your file by calling just one of the three major credit reporting agencies. As soon as that agency processes your fraud alert, it will notify the other two credit reporting agencies, which then must also place fraud alerts in your file. You also may place a security freeze on your file by calling one of the three major credit reporting agencies.

- The three major credit reporting companies are:

Experian
P.O. Box 9532
Allen, TX 75013
www.experian.com
1-888-397-3742

Equifax
P.O. Box 740241
Atlanta, Georgia 30374
www.equifax.com
1-800-525-6285

TransUnion,
Fraud Victim Assistance Department
P.O. Box 6790
Fullerton, CA 92834
www.transunion.com
1-800-680-7289

Identity theft is a growing concern. To learn more, you can go to www.consumer.gov/idtheft, or www.ftc.gov/credit, or call 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338). In addition, you may contact the Federal Trade Commission or law enforcement to report incidents of identity theft.

Please know that we regret any inconvenience or concern this incident may cause you and remain committed to protecting the privacy of personal information. For further information regarding this matter, please call us at 1-866-764-5822.

Sincerely,

Dan Buchbinder

President & CEO